

Let us sing in love and duty
To our school this song we raise,
Here, 'mid Yorkshire's tranquil beauty,
Heart and voice we lift in praise.
To each one is freely tendered
Fellowship and gaiety
Brighter pathways to the future,
Vision, opportunity.
Quid retribuam Domino.

Heir of such a proud tradition
Bred in peace and tried in war
What to help the future total,
Can I render as my score?
Breadth of mind and moral courage,
Humour, kindness, brotherhood.
Never-failing zest for service
And the pow'r to find life good.
Haec retribuam Domino
