

KING JAMES'S SCHOOL
KNARESBOROUGH

YEAR	 BRONZE 15 MINS	 SILVER 30 MINS	 GOLD 1 HOUR OVER 2 WEEKS
Year 7	Once in each learning cycle you will be directed to revise key terminology for a quiz. LC1: The Magician's Workshop/creative writing            LC2: A Christmas Carol/Victorian London            LC3: Amazing Journeys/travel writing            LC4: Wonder/media features	Throughout the learning cycle, you will be given opportunities to direct your own reading journey and gain rewards. Visit the library and select a story (lists available from Ms Bryden and Ms Lloyd). Read the story and return a 50-word evaluation to your English teacher to acquire positive Bromcom points. You can do this as many times as you wish; there is no limit!	Optional homework: we encourage students to write for pleasure. Spend at least an hour working on some non-fiction writing such as a diary, a newspaper article or a biography, and bring it to your teacher when you're ready. Suggested topics: kindness, generosity, diversity, charity, journeys, hope
Year 8	Once in each learning cycle you will be directed to revise key terminology for a quiz. LC1: The Gothic            LC2: Witch Child/history of witch trials            LC3: Burning Issues/challenging debate topics            LC4: Much Ado About Nothing/theatre of Shakespeare	Throughout the learning cycle, you will be given opportunities to direct your own reading journey and gain rewards. Visit the library and select a story (lists available from Ms Bryden and Ms Lloyd). Read the story and return a 50-word evaluation to your English teacher to acquire positive Bromcom points. You can do this as many times as you wish; there is no limit!	Optional homework: we encourage students to write for pleasure. Spend at least an hour working on some non-fiction writing such as a diary, a newspaper article or a biography, and bring it to your teacher when you're ready. Suggested topics: the supernatural, witchcraft, prejudice, persecution, otherness, patriarchy
Year 9	Once in each learning cycle you will be directed to revise key terminology for a quiz. LC1: Detective/mystery            LC2: Of Mice and Men/hierarchies            LC3: Greatest Speeches            LC4: Romeo &amp; Juliet/tragedy	Throughout the learning cycle, you will be given opportunities to direct your own reading journey and gain rewards. Visit the library and select a story (lists available from Ms Bryden and Ms Lloyd). Read the story and return a 50-word evaluation to your English teacher to acquire positive Bromcom points. You can do this as many times as you wish; there is no limit!	Optional homework: we encourage students to write for pleasure. Spend at least an hour working on some non-fiction writing such as a diary, a newspaper article or a biography, and bring it to your teacher when you're ready. Suggested topics: mysteries, unsolved crimes, status, inequality, identity, protest, tragedy