

Year 13 mock exam revision schedule – Philosophy and Ethics

Year 13 mock exam revision schedule

A level philosophy and Ethics

- Outlined below is a step by step revision schedule for the above A level course.
- This outlines what you must study for your mock exam.

Please tick off the topics as you progress through them, and ensure that they are signed off.

Focus	Revision content	revised	RAG rate
Philosophy	The cosmological argument.
Ethics	Animal welfare – focus on anthropocentric and ecocentric views.
Philosophy	Eschatology with a focus on the soul and life after death.
Ethics	Medical ethics – focus on pre-implantation genetic diagnosis.
Philosophy	Read the anthology 'The Philosophy of Religion' Chapter 1, 'Theology and Falsification: A symposium'. Mitchell, B.
Ethics	Read the anthology 'Groundwork for the Metaphysics of Morals'. Kant.
Philosophy	Religious language with a focus on the verification debate.
Ethics	Kants' deontology with a focus on his approach to ethics and morality. Kant and W.D Ross.
Philosophy	The problem of evil and suffering. Focus on challenges to the existence of God.
Ethics	Morality and religion. Focus on whether or not they can coexist.		